Jottings

Was one of seven brothers
 The local press were confused between him and his brother REGINALD (as were the Norwich newspapers some years earlier) and so the Croydon appearances could have been by either brother
 Made no first team appearances for Queens Park Rangers, but played regularly for the reserves in the London League in 1911-12
 Reappeared for Norwich City in a wartime win over Liverpool Scottish on 11.9.1915 and again on 11 January 1919
 Worked in the GWR Paddington Goods Yard from November 1903 and, in August 1905, was cautioned for ill-treating a horse!
 Died on the Cold Oak Lane allotments in Hendon
