Jottings

One of the few players who appeared for both the amateur and professional Croydon Common sides
Was the first captain of the amateur Croydon Common club and brother of Edmund Stockdale
Married Alice Dyball in 1902 and emigrated to the USA with their three sons and a daughter; many years later, a descendant sent the Surrey Herald Cup that Croydon Common had won in 1904-05 to Crystal Palace in the mistaken belief that the club was formerly Croydon Common - he must have taken it with him when he emigrated
